Open University Course

Petition for Withdrawal

Students wishing to withdraw from an Open Enrollment course must file a Petition for Withdrawal before the end of the third week of classes. A full refund of course fees is available through the third week of the quarter. There are no refunds or transfers after this date. The registration fee is non-refundable. Failure to file a Petition for Withdrawal before the drop deadline will result in your continued enrollment in the course. Submit a Petition for Late Drop if you wish to withdraw after the published course deadline.
